PETITIONING THE COURT

☒ To issue a warrant under seal
☐ To issue a summons

I allege Isaiah Thomas Willoughby has violated conditions of supervision by:

Violation Number	Nature of Noncompliance
1.	Failure to comply with location monitoring program in violation of a special condition of supervised release, by deviating from an approved pass on April 15, 2023.
2.	Failure to successfully participate in a residential reentry center program in violation of a special condition of supervised release by being unsuccessfully terminated on April 15, 2023

Nature of Violation Conduct:

On April 15, 2023, Mr. Willoughby was approved by probation's location monitoring program and the Seattle Residential Reentry Center to leave the facility from 8am to 1pm to donate plasma in Federal Way, Washington. According to reentry center staff, his pass was extended to 1:30pm after he returned to the facility stating he had forgot an item. At 1:36pm, Mr. Willoughby failed to return to the reentry center and staff attempts to reach him were unsuccessful. According to mapping at 1:36pm he was located in Federal Way, Washington on Pacific Highway South travelling in the opposite direction of the residential reentry center. I made multiple attempts to reach him via phone and text to no avail. I also sent several messages to his tracker to "call your officer now" which were not acknowledged. Due to his failure to return to the residential reentry center on time and failed contact attempts by reentry center staff and myself, he has been unsuccessfully terminated from the program as an absconder as of 2:45pm.

Mr. Willoughby has a criminal history that consists of convictions for reckless driving, assault, driving while license suspended, trafficking stolen property, violating a protection order, computer trespassing, cyberstalking, and theft. He is considered a risk of danger because the underlying offense involved him setting fire to the Seattle Police Department's East Precinct building. He is considered a risk of flight because he deviated from an approved community pass and attempts to reach him have been unsuccessful.
